TWO INJURED IN IRON SPRINGS AUTO ACCIDENT

Two persons were injured when cars collided Saturday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the underpass at Iron Springs.

State police said Vaughn Dagenhart, 38, Fairfield R. 1, was driving east and Florence E. Entenmann, 24, Iron Springs, west when both sought to enter the underpass under the old Tape Worm Railroad. The underpass is one car width and the autos hit head-on.

Damage to Dagenhart's 1957 car was estimated at $2,400. Damage to Mrs. Entenmann's auto was listed at $400.

A passing motorist took Mrs. Entenmann to the Warner Hospital. She was suffering from severe lacerations of the head. The same motorist also took a passenger in her car, Charles H. Entenmann, 28, Iron Springs, to the hospital suffering from lacerations and abrasions of the head.

Accident On Route 30
The accident was one of two investigated by state police Saturday. No one was injured but damage totaled $350 when three cars collided on the Lincoln Highway a half mile east of New Oxford at noon Saturday.

The officers said a motorist halted on the Lincoln Highway preparatory to making a left hand turn. Doris L. Staub, 35, New Oxford, halted her car behind that vehicle. Jean Ann Griest, 18, Gettysburg R. 3, stopped her auto behind the Staub car. Francis E. Noel, 33, New Oxford, according to police, was unable to stop quickly enough and his car struck the Griest vehicle forcing it into the Staub car. Damage was estimated at $30 to Noel's sedan, $20 to the Griest car and $300 to the Staub vehicle.

Officer Falls Into Cave-in And Disappears

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Is there such a thing as a lost stream?

A tragedy has revealed that there is.

It all started Saturday night when patrolman Joseph Reiss, 35, was checking a reported cave-in at a street intersection in north-eastern Philadelphia.

Suddenly the earth below him crumbled without warning. He was swallowed into a gaping hole 43 feet deep, 60 feet long, and 60 feet wide. There has been no trace of him since.

City Water Commissioner Samuel Baxter said that the cave-in was caused by the collapse of an 11-foot arch over a forgotten stream that had been turned into a sewer 75 years ago.

SUES FOR DAMAGES
A damage suit resulting from a traffic accident was filed Saturday in York by Robert McAndrew, 257 Highland Ave., against C. H. Keville, Canastota, N. Y., for $185 as a result of an accident near Clear Springs on August 3, 1958.

One man broke through police lines to give the American visitor a bear hug that almost swept him off his feet.

The crowd was small in comparison to the quarter of a million Poles who greeted Nixon on arrival Sunday. But it outdid even that great throng in vociferousness and enthusiasm.

Griming, Nixon moved back toward his car, and the procession went off to the government offices for calls on Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomułka, Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz and Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki.

Protocol Calls
Earlier, Nixon paid a protocol call on President Aleksandr Sawadski, who had invited him to Poland, and on Parliament Speaker Czeslaw Wycech.

The reception Sunday was the most rousing Nixon had gotten. For nearly 15 miles, ecstatic crowds cheered the delighted vice president and showered him with flowers after he arrived by plane from Moscow.

Welcome Beats Red's
On his arrival Sunday, Nixon was greeted by Vice President Oscar Lange, former head of the Polish delegation at the United Nations, and Deputy Foreign Minister Josef Winiewicz, former Polish ambassador in Washington. Since Nixon is not a chief of state, protocol did not require the top officials to turn out.

Nixon's tumultuous welcome to Warsaw exceeded that given Khrushchev last month, when he made a 10-day state visit to Poland.

"Nothing ever exceeded this," said the jubilant vice president after his drive through milling throngs from Warsaw's Babice (Continued On Page 3)

Russian Coming Here Next Month; Ike Will Call On Macmillan, De Gaulle First; Visit Moscow Later In Fall

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower announced today that he and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will exchange visits this fall.

Khrushchev will visit this country in September. Eisenhower will return the visit later in the fall.

No exact dates have been fixed.

Eisenhower said Khrushchev probably will spend about 10 days in this country, two or three of them in informal conferences in Washington.

As a preliminary to Khrushchev's visit, Eisenhower will go to Europe later this month to confer with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and President Charles de Gaulle of France.

In response to a specific question Eisenhower said he would also confer with West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer somewhere along the line. He said the meeting would not necessarily be in Bonn.

"Badly Kept Secret"

Eisenhower called a special news conference to announce the planned exchange of visits.

In response to questions, he left up in the air the possibility of a Big Four Summit meeting after the exchange of visits with Khrushchev.

He said such a conference was absolutely impractical unless there were advance indications of positive results.

Eisenhower smilingly described his announcement that Khrushchev would visit this country in September and that he would return the visit later as one of the worst-kept secrets in a long time.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

Warsaw (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today he understands the date for Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit to the United States is around Sept. 15.

Reds Break News

The Soviet radio made the announcement about the time the President was meeting with newsmen. Also there had been word earlier from congressional sources that Eisenhower's news conference call was for the purpose of stating that Khrushchev was coming here.

Khrushchev Has Been Throwing Out Hints For Months That He Was Ready And Willing To Accept An Invitation To Visit The United States.

Started In July

Obviously educated speculation that Nixon would recommend an invitation began to appear in dispatches by accompanying newsmen soon after Nixon reached Moscow.

Eisenhower told his news conference that he initiated formal discussions early in July leading to the agreement for an exchange of visits.

The President spoke of his move as aimed to melt a little of the ice which seems to freeze this country's relations with the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower said it was his hope the exchange of visits might lead to a better understanding between the two countries and promote the cause of peace.

Eisenhower said Khrushchev, in addition to conducting informal talks with him, would be able to see some of this country. The President said his visit to the Soviet Union also would include visits outside Moscow.

Allies In Agreement

The matter of an exchange of visits had been discussed with Western Allies, Eisenhower said, adding that they had agreed to it in the hope it would produce positive rather than negative values.

He also said congressional leaders with whom he had discussed the matter had reacted favorably. Eisenhower gave no indication as to how soon he will return Khrushchev's visit, but noted that fall does not end until Dec. 22.

He described his visit to the Soviet Union as a personal one, saying he cannot and does not intend (Continued On Page 3)

Expect Talks At Geneva To End Wednesday

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — The prospect of a visit to the United States by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev eased Allied fears today of a dangerous new flareup in the Berlin crisis after the collapse of the foreign ministers conference here.

U.S., British and French officials all conceded the conference almost certainly will end in disagreement Wednesday. The only reservation they make is that some unforeseen and radical change of position by Russia could alter the outcome even on the final day. Informants said the West will not change its position.

Negotiations have come almost to a standstill. The only East-West talk scheduled today was a luncheon meeting between Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The Briton was to meet before and after with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

Before talk arose of an invitation soon from President Eisenhower to Khrushchev, all the Allied delegations here were concerned over what Russia would do about West Berlin when efforts to reach an agreement finally collapsed.

Lloyd and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan see a Khrushchev-Eisenhower meeting as a step toward a summit conference, which they still ardently desire. They apparently believe talks between the Soviet Premier and the U.S. President would open up prospects for agreement at the summit on at least one or two issues.

"KIDNAPPING" STORY FADES

Joseph Palmer, 18-year-old Lockport, N.Y., man, is confined to the Adams County jail while state police determine whether there may be something more to his story than they have been able to find so far.

Police first made the acquaintance of Palmer about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He told them he had been kidnapped from his home in Lockport by two Puerto Ricans, who had held him by force for several days in their car here in Adams County.

State police began an immediate investigation, which finally revealed that Palmer had been a dishwasher in a Lockport hotel. The two Puerto Ricans told Palmer of the "big money" they were making by orchard work and invited him to join them at a labor camp here in Adams County.

Palmer, police said, decided to join them, but after several days work became "homesick" and decided to walk back to Lockport. He became lost in his attempt, police said, and finally decided to call state police and tell them of the "kidnapping."

He was jailed for 48 hours on an open charge.

Plan To Fire Man Type Space Ship In Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first man-carrying type of space capsule is scheduled for launch-uncoupled, next month.

It will be sent up from Cape Canaveral, Fla., by a vehicle called Big Joe, essentially a modified Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

The conventional Atlas, 75 feet tall, climbs to altitudes of several hundred miles and delivers its warhead at speeds of more than 15,000 miles an hour over a range of up to 6,300 miles.

Big Joe, by contrast, will rise vertically to about 120 miles, then tilts at right angles and slightly downward. With its mighty engine still putting out full power, it will thunder down a slanted course through the earth's thickening atmosphere. The purpose: a maximum test of the ablation or heat erosion of the outer space of the space capsule's nose.

The space capsule atop the Atlas in Big Joe is the same weight —2,100 to 2,200 pounds—and will have the same instrumentation and pressurized compartment as the man-in-space capsule but will not have the environmental equipment required to keep a man alive.

GOP WILL BALK AT DEALS WITH PHILADELPHIA FOR SALES TAX

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Republican leaders said today they would balk at any deals with the Philadelphia Democratic delegation as a condition for passing a compromise 4 per cent sales tax plan.

Rep. W. Stuart Helm, chairman of the House GOP Policy Committee, made the pledge amid reports that a break in the legislative impasse over taxes was imminent.

Rep. Stephen McCann, House Democratic leader, said he had "high hopes" that the tax stalemate would end this week.

Deal Reported
But he declined to comment on reports that the 35-member Philadelphia Democratic delegation was ready to accept the 4 per cent sales tax plan it rejected July 15. The Philadelphia's about-face reportedly hinges on appointment of three members of their delegation to a House-Senate conference committee on appropriations.

McCann said he wanted to talk first to Rep. James J. Dougherty, chairman of the Philadelphia delegation, before discussing possible plans for a new attempt to pass the tax bill.

Called "Preposterous"
Commenting on the agreement reportedly worked out with the Philadelphia delegation, Helm said flatly:

"If that's the deal and what I've been reading is true, and the Democratic leadership so tells me, then as far as I am concerned there'll be no Republican help (to pass a tax program). We will be part of no deal with the Philadelphia Democrats."

The same reaction came from Sen. Albert R. Pechan (R - Armstrong) who viewed the idea of three Philadelphia Democrats serving on the conference committee as "preposterous."

Declaration By Philadelphia
"What are we to have—Philadelphia dictating to the rest of the state?" asked Pechan.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth was expected to put the city's position before legislative leaders of both parties this week. McCann said he planned to meet with Dilworth either today or Tuesday. However, GOP leaders said they hadn't scheduled any talks with the mayor.

Philadelphia is interested chiefly in getting a firm commitment that the Republican-controlled Senate won't trim appropriations to the city requested in Gov. Lawrence's budget. The funds include 4 1/2 million dollars for the Philadelphia General Hospital and 3 million for the city's health department.

Six On Committee

The conference committee, if one is named, would have three Republicans—two from the Senate and one from the House—and three Democrats—two from the House and one from the Senate.

The sales tax compromise would produce an expected 148 1/2 million dollars for the 1959-61 biennium. This with an increase in the bank shares tax, inclusion of gas companies under the utilities gross receipts tax and revival of the personal property tax, would produce an estimated revenue of 231 million dollars in the fiscal period.

The Senate, which has said it can cut up to 60 million dollars from Gov. Lawrence's requests, is not expected to pass the personal property levy, however.

Plan Heavy Schedule

McCann outlined a heavy two-week schedule in the House during which he hopes to clean up 95 per cent of the non-fiscal business of the House.

Principal legislation scheduled for a showdown vote in that period includes housing anti-discrimination, Blue Laws regulations, re-examination of drivers, the graduated income tax amendment, lobbyist controls and new mining regulations.

"Within two weeks we'll have every Democratic platform pledge to the Senate," McCann said.

Weather Forecast

"GIVE CREDIT"

Why do we envy people . . . when they are alive . . . then praise them to the sky when they . . . have suddenly ceased to thrive . . . it is a quirk of mankind . . . to envy those who rise . . . but this shortcoming seems to me . . . to be most unwise . . . for envy tends to wreck the nerves . . . of those held in its sway . . . whereas if we give honest praise . . . our hearts will e'er be gay . . . now I do not pretend to think . . . this verse will change mankind . . . but I will be rewarded if . . . it penetrates one mind . . . and so I say to everyone . . . give credit where it's due . . . for if you ever reach the top . . . you'll want some credit too.

to speak for the Western powers, but only for the United States.

The announcement eases fears of a dangerous new flareup of the Berlin crisis after the imminent collapse of the Geneva foreign ministers conference. Dispatches from Geneva said diplomats expect this parity to end in failure Wednesday.

But with the leaders of the United States and Russia slated to meet, it is considered unlikely that the Kremlin would take any move toward its aim of ousting the Western powers from West Berlin.

Thus the world is apparently spared, for some weeks at least, the prospect of any great collision over Berlin.

Historic Red First
The Khrushchev visit will be a historic first — no other top leader of Russian communism has ever visited the United States.

It will pose a massive security problem for federal officers and for state and local authorities wherever Khrushchev may go.

While no top man in the Russian hierarchy has ever visited this country, the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt did visit Russia. In February 1945 Roosevelt, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin met at Yalta in the Crimea in a conference which has been controversial to this day.

Ike Favored Visits
Eisenhower is known to have long held the view that under the right conditions it would be a good idea for Khrushchev — and for the top echelon of the Russian government in general — to visit this country. The idea behind that was to let the Russians see what this country has, how it lives and the stakes it has to defend if need be.

For a long time there has been speculation in some quarters that there are misconceptions among the top Russians about how fully the American people back their government leaders, and the degree of public devotion to the democratic way.

Eisenhower has believed that public opinion would have to be carefully prepared, however, for any Khrushchev visit, to avoid demonstrations or incidents.

Eisenhower also felt that the timing of any Khrushchev visit would be important, and that careful consideration would have to be given the feelings of America's allies and of "captive countries."

One part of that ground apparently is covered by the plan for Eisenhower to visit Europe and talk with Allied leaders.

The prospective unproductive end of the Geneva conference could fit closely into Eisenhower's thoughts about proper timing.

Farms Sold: We understand that Mr. Daniel Elmhart has sold his farm in Hamilton township at $52 per acre to Mr. Hoffheins, of York county. Mr. John Snyder, adjoining, has also sold his farm to a York county man, whose name we have not learned, at $34.25 per acre.

Very nearly a fire took place Wednesday last by the burning of a chimney in the three story building of Mrs. Wasimus. Some sparks had lodged on the roof, and had kindled into a blaze, when that intrepid fireman, James Rouser, who observed it from another part of town, where he was at work, was quickly on the roof and with a few buckets of water extinguished the flames. His promptness and daring no doubt saved our town from a serious fire.

Quite an extensive Bakery is being commenced in this place by Mr. Valentine Sapee, and we are surprised at the amount of sales expected to be made daily of bread, cakes, crackers &c. It is quite convenient to our citizens and we hope may be profitable to him. He is located on York street, nearly opposite Wattles' Hotel, and has erected a large and commodious bake house and is securing the most approved machinery.

The Concert and Pic-Nic: These affairs, under the direction of Prof. Harry, came off according to programme. On Friday evening the Concert took place at Christ's Church and was highly interesting. The house was filled to overflowing, and hundreds filled the vestibule and pavements. We learn that all were highly gratified. The singing societies from Fairfield and Hanover were present in connection with that of Gettysburg.

On Saturday, early in the day, our citizens were entertained with heart-stirring music from the Hanover Silver Band, which was here in strength, also by the People's Band and Citizens' band of this place. During the early part of the forenoon wagons loaded with provisions of all kinds were seen wending their way to the Picnic ground — and in a short time crowds were pressing in there from all points of the compass, until an immense throng was assembled from all parts of the country. It was, indeed, The Picnic of the season — possibly two or three thousand being present.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Arrested — A dispatch from Woodstock, Va., says that a band of supposed incendiaries on Cedar Creek, along the Shenandoah county line, has been charged with setting fire to the Windle property two years ago and Cunningham's mill last May and placed in jail at Woodstock. James M. Rouzer of Gettysburg, accompanied the detection and arrest. He settled among the band for four weeks and obtained their confidence by playing "tramp" and occasionally securing apple jack for them.Sales: John and Edward Tawney have bought of Mrs. Sophia Horner two lots of ground on South Baltimore street, 60 feet front, for $250, with a view to erecting dwellings.
Peter Miller of Hamilton township, has purchased the property of J. B. Gross for $3,500 cash.
Rev. Walter E. Krebs purchased of Mr. Daniel Sell one acre of ground adjoining the property of Mr. Samuel Young, Littlestown, for $715.

Today's Talk

CONFESSION

They say "confession is good for the soul," but I will tell you something that confession is better for than the soul. It's better for the brain, the stomach, the nerves, the liver than it ever could be for the soul. For these things keep the soul in health.

Confession is regeneration — re-CREATION.

So long as you have the courage to confess, to acknowledge error, just so long are you your true, wholesome human self. But keep your confessions to yourself! You are the one most interested in your own mistakes and blunders. You are the one who benefits most when you render service. Confess to yourself. Get to the point where you and yourself are on the best terms — regular boon companions.

Don't give other people the chance to gloat over your failures and toe-stubs. Get alone with yourself, as often as you can, and give yourself the most penetrating criticism. Draw a picture with your mind's eye and in it put your "blacks." Scrutinize your failures and determine to clean up the picture by eliminating the useless and undone for the helpful and serviceful.

Form the habit of daily, quiet, personal confessing over and over again to yourself. It is better than a tonic!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "This Impossible World"

RESPONDING TO MALICE
When bitterness begins to speak
Of people that I know,
I turn away and gently say:
"I haven't found them so."When envy lifts its angry head
To snarl at friends of mine,
I never let myself forget
That I have found them fine.I won't believe a man is base
Or false, whoever he be,
Until the day that I may say
That he's been false to me.

pose of putting up tents and having everything in readiness for the arrival of their comrades. Thursday evening our streets became lively and the blue coats and pants were seen everywhere. The encampment is really so immense that it is difficult to know where to commence a description of it. Anyone going out the Emmitsburg road strikes the camp grounds nearly opposite the farm of Mr. Frederick Pfeffer; further on the tents line both sides of the road and extend in a westerly, north-westerly and south-westerly direction to the base of Seminary Ridge with a portion of the first brigade east of the road. The National Guard of Pennsylvania is composed of one division, consisting of three Brigades of the last Adjutant General's report, 552 officers and 7,454 enlisted men, making a total of 8,006.

Priest Is Striken
While Saying Mass

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Alexander F. Moriarty, 45, stricken while saying mass at Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church in Montoursville, died Sunday night in Divine Providence Hospital here.

Death was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Father Moriarty, a native of Scranton, became ill at mass Sunday morning, but he was able to complete the service.

He was assigned as pastor of the Montoursville church in June. He previously served at St. Mary's Church in Wyalusing.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete, but the body is expected to be returned to the Scranton area following a solemn requiem mass here Wednesday.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Tito Francona, the new hero of the Cleveland baseball fans, says he has no secret for his sensational hitting. "I just keep swinging at that ball."

Francona whacked seven hits in a doubleheader with the Baltimore Orioles Sunday, winning the nightcap with a three-run homer in the ninth inning to break a 3-3 tie. The Orioles took the opener 5-4 in 10 innings and Tito had four singles.

The only time he was retired in the twinbill was in the seventh inning of the second game and it took a diving catch by Oriole third baseman Brooks Robinson to snare Tito's hot line drive.

CAGEY ABOUT
PENNANT TALKBy JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox are sitting pretty and they know it.

But nobody is saying a word. The tipoff to their real attitude is that all questions concerning the American League pennant are being pushed aside with the stock answer:

"We have to play them one at a time."

The Sox are the hottest team in baseball. They lead second-place Cleveland by three games after sweeping a double-header from Washington 3-2 and 9-3 Sunday.

Winning Streak

They've won six in a row, 11 of their last 12 and are 19-5 since the All-Star break. They have been involved in 31 one-run games and have won 26 of them.

Their defense is the best in baseball, their pitching has been excellent and they have been getting the breaks.

"Pennant? Don't talk pennant to me," says President Bill Veeck. "I remember in 1948 when I had Cleveland we had a six-game lead in September. You know what happened? We had to beat Boston in a playoff to win the pennant. Don't talk pennant to me."

Manager Al Lopez, by nature, rarely says anything. "How can I talk about a championship when we have 52 games to play?" says Lopez.

SINGLE SMOKE
FLARE SAVES
TWO FLYERS

JUNEAU, Alaska (P) — A single smoke flare, saved for use at just the right moment, brought rescue Sunday to two men marooned seven nights and days high on the barren face of an Alaska glacier.

The flare was sighted by a helicopter pilot participating in a week-old sea and air search over the mountains and through the valleys and inlets of rugged Glacier Bay National Monument.

Although the two were saved, the body of a third man remained with the wreckage of a helicopter in which they crashed last Sunday at the 5,800-foot level Gilman Glacier.

To Get Body Today
Dead was Robert Baldwin of Ridgefield, Conn., a geophysicist for the Newmont Exploration Co., Ltd., of New York City. Another helicopter was to remove the body today.

Bearded and weary, bruised but otherwise not seriously hurt, were Robert Sheldon and Melvin Guerrero. They survived through chilling temperatures and heavy rain with the aid of a sleeping bag and emergency food rations.

"The first thing they wanted were baths," said Dr. Joseph O. Rude, who treated the men at Juneau's St. Anne's Hospital.

"There's nothing seriously wrong," he said, "nothing a few days rest and food won't fix."

Sighted By Helicopter

Sheldon, a geologist from Spokane, Wash., was working with Baldwin at an oil exploration camp on Brady Glacier in the National monument area. Guerrero, 28, formerly of Reno, Nev., is a pilot for Petroleum Helicopters of Lafayette, La., working on charter.

The men were sighted near the scene of the crash, about 90 miles west of Juneau, by a helicopter operated by a Canadian mining company. If flew them to a sandy beach at nearby Tarr Inlet, where a Coast Guard amphibian, piloted by Lt. Comdr. Leonard Daniel, New Orleans, La., carried them to Juneau Harbor.

Adverse winds on the flight over the glacier a week ago Sunday apparently led to the helicopter crash, the U.S. Coast Guard rescue center here said.

PENNA. GRID
STARS BLAST
OPPONENTSBy FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—"We were much sharper this year, surprisingly fast and strong," the Old Sports Editor was saying.

He was holding forth after Saturday night's 18-0 victory by the Pennsylvania high school stars over a select group of prep stars from across the nation.

"When we beat 'em last year, 6-0, our offense wasn't nearly as polished. It was one of those wear-down type games. But this year we were smooth both ways."

Crowd Of 22,000

The game, played before 22,000 at Hershey Stadium, was the second annual challenge by a group of June high school graduates chosen by a statewide panel of sports writers, to a national team picked by the Wigwam Wisemen of America, Oklahoma City.

The Harrisburg Patriot - News and the All-American Prep Foundation (affiliate of the Wigwam Wisemen) co-sponsored the game, for the benefit of boy and girl scout activities in Central Pennsylvania.

"Our line did it again," the Old Sports Editor went on. "Mose Simms (All-American official) was telling me after the game: 'You had more rugged desire than we did. Our kids wanted to ride the bus from the dormitory to the practice field. Your kids would cheerfully walk.'"

How They Did It
John Sherer of Philadelphia started the Pennsylvania "Big 3" scoring by blocking a punt for a safety late in the first quarter.

Denny Phillips, Mt. Lebanon, added six points in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge. Ed Rutkowski, Kingston, passed to Tom Urbanik of Donora for two extra points.

In the third quarter, after the All-Americans gambled for two yards on fourth down on their own 19 and lost, Rutkowski ran for another six points on the first play. He also circled end for the two extra points.

UNHAPPY OVER
ALL-STAR TILT

CLEVELAND (AP)—In a soft, Texas drawl, Paul Richards accused major league officials of "a miserable act of malfeasance."

The mild-mannered Baltimore manager, angered by arrangements for today's major league All-Star game, Sunday night spoke out against it as a "money-grabbing exhibition" and a "black mark on all of baseball."

"The entire thing is a travesty," said Richards.

"In the first place, it's not important enough to take three days off to run right, like they did the first one. It's drawing little interest from the newspapers and it doesn't look like it will draw the way it should."

Interferes With Race

"If they have about 40,000 empty seats with the best players in the game coming to Los Angeles, then it will be a black mark on all of baseball."

Richards erupted after pitcher Jerry Walker was named to the All-Star squad Sunday in place of the Orioles ailing catcher, Gus Triandos. The manager, with starting pitchers Hoyt Wilhelm and Billy O'Dell also on the All-Star roster, was looking ahead to a three-game series with the league-leading Chicago White Sox.

"Yet we plan our pitching so we have Walker to open Tuesday night against Chicago, and now, with no warning whatsoever, we are supposed to look for somebody else x x x."

PILOT KILLED IN CRASH NEAR PARENTS' HOME

OKMULGEE, Okla. (AP) — "I found that water pond, and I just drank and drank, that water tasted so good," said the lone survivor of a plane crash which killed three other persons Saturday night.

Mrs. Jewell Lois Hamby, 43, of Kennett, Mo., told how she had spent the night near the wreckage, then crawled and staggered Sunday morning to a nearby house. It turned out to be the home of the dead pilot's parents.

Killed were pilot John L. Lane, 35, La Habra, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lane of Okmulgee; Mrs. Emma Shanks, 73, and her sister, Mrs. Agnes Tidwell, 63, both of Kennett. Mrs. Hamby, hospitalized in serious condition, said she, her mother, and her aunt were returning from a California visit.

Mrs. Lane said Mrs. Hamby had appeared at their home about 8 a.m. The Lanes took her to the hospital. At first the injured woman mumbled the pilot was her brother. Then at the hospital she mentioned the name Lane.

"That must be my son," cried Mrs. Lane. The couple rushed back and found the wreckage, obscured by high weeds, about 300 yards from their home, four miles northeast of here.

ALERT NURSE
HELPS PATIENT

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—A man who couldn't remember his name is back home in Philadelphia today, due to an alert nurse and some mumbling in his sleep.

Nurse Nancy Hughes of the Hazleton State Hospital heard her amnesia patient mention a telephone number Sunday night. It was the first clue to the identity of the young man who was found July 25 sitting on the steps of the local church.

She found it was a Philadelphia number. Police in the city were notified and they gave the nurse instructions: Ask him if his name is Joseph Kallinger.

The question snapped Kallinger back to reality. He identified himself as a 22-year-old shoemaker and a father of three. His last recollection was leaving his home on July 22 to see a doctor about a nervous condition.

DAZED WOMAN IS IDENTIFIED,
HOSPITALIZED

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — The pregnant woman found wandering in a dazed condition in Hillside July 25 has been identified as Mrs. Marie Miller of Bethlehem, Pa.

Mrs. Miller spoke to police Sunday, who described her as ill and began arrangements to have her transferred to a hospital nearer home. She is in St. Elizabeth's Hospital here.

She was tentatively identified Saturday by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leonard Raczkowski of Jim Thorpe, Pa. Mrs. Raczkowski told police that Mrs. Miller had been released from an Allentown, Pa., hospital recently.

Police said Mrs. Miller told them she took a bus from Bethlehem to Phillipsburg, then began walking on the highway. A truck driver gave her a lift and dropped her off near a spot where he said she could get the bus to New York.

Tells Of Attack

Mrs. Miller said the driver returned and tried to attack her but she did not know whether he actually did. She said she didn't think so.

A hospital pathologist said she had a heavy dose of barbiturates in her system which may have caused the dazed condition.

Edward Miller, her husband, is a tuberculous patient in an Allentown hospital and their 3-year-old son, Edward is staying with relatives.

When admitted to the hospital, the woman carried a pole undeveloped film which police developed to trace her identity. She said most of the pictures were of her neighbors, although she could not identify one.

Father Of Six Is Fatally Stricken

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—A 42-year-old father of six collapsed and died while welding the galvanized lining inside a combine on his farm at Forks Township near here.

Northampton County Coroner George P. Karmetz said George de Walt apparently died of what he called galvanize poisoning. The coroner however scheduled an autopsy for Monday.

De Walt was welding Saturday while two of his children were playing close by. Suddenly he called for his children to get help. The Easton emergency squad responded and took de Walt to Easton Hospital where he was dead on arrival.

COMPULSORY POLIO SHOTS WRITTEN OFF

HARRISBURG (AP)—Compulsory polio vaccinations were written off today by legislative and administrative officials.

Chairman H. J. Maxwell (D—Westmoreland) of the House Public Health and Sanitation Committee, said he doesn't expect his committee will act on a bill introduced Jan. 20 to make such vaccinations compulsory for school-age children.

"Right now I don't think it's feasible," Dr. Maxwell, a dentist, said. "There's been a terrific amount of opposition—from everywhere—to compulsory shots."

"Doing Good Job"

"It seems the county health department, the different health units and the doctors, are doing a good job. Anyone who wants to be vaccinated can be."

Dr. Charles L. Wilbar, secretary of health, and his chief of the communicable disease bureau, Dr. W. D. Schrack Jr., gave no support to the compulsory shot legislation.

"I'm hoping that popular education will take care of the situation," Wilbar said.

"It is hard to legislate for the pre-school age child and that's where we had 70 per cent of our cases last year. We find that parents of the children in this age group are bringing their children in anyhow, this year."

"Our biggest problem is obtaining vaccine. Demand is beyond the supply at present."

Wilbar estimated that about 70 per cent of Pennsylvania residents under 40 have had some anti-polio vaccine, a tremendous increase from past years when just about the reverse was true.

Schrack said that since the immunization campaign began in the latter part of 1955, 15,000,000 doses of vaccine have been used in Pennsylvania, enough to provide three shots for almost half of the state's 11,000,000 citizens of all ages.

Schrack disclosed that to date, 15 polio cases have been reported to the department, with two deaths. Last year, there were 136 cases, with eight deaths.

Schrack said state-supported vaccination now is being concentrated in the critical birth to five years category. The state supplies vaccine for indigent families. Dr. Schrack estimated about 50,000 children are born into these families every year.

Wife Face Murder Charge

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—grand jury will consider a second degree murder charge Sept. 14 against Mrs. Arleta Hankins, 49, in the fatal shooting of her husband.

Mrs. Hankins was released from Ashtabula County Jail Saturday on $20,000 bond.

Her husband, Earl C. Hankins, 54, was shot at the couple's home on July 23. He was business manager of the Ashtabula Star Beacon and a former managing editor of a Conneaut newspaper.

WARSAW (AP)—Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, touring with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, showed no interest today in his birthplace, the village of Ricki about 50 miles southeast of Warsaw.

Asked whether he intended to visit Ricki, he replied: "What for?"

Much Tax Money Being Held Up

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Revenue Department says it is unable to collect millions of dollars of sales and use taxes because agencies are piling up the courts and state agencies.

Charles M. Dougherty, revenue secretary, said Sunday that "accounts receivable at the close of business July 31, 1959, were $11,700,000."

Dougherty replied to a weekend claim by Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith that the Sales and Use Tax Bureau lacked aggressiveness in collecting money due the Commonwealth.

Dougherty said the bureau is "doing a good job" of collecting money due the Commonwealth.

"It seems the county health department, the different health units and the doctors, are doing a good job. Anyone who wants to be vaccinated can be."

Dr. Charles L. Wilbar, secretary of health, and his chief of the communicable disease bureau, Dr. W. D. Schrack Jr., gave no support to the compulsory shot legislation.

"I'm hoping that popular education will take care of the situation," Wilbar said.

"It is hard to legislate for the pre-school age child and that's where we had 70 per cent of our cases last year. We find that parents of the children in this age group are bringing their children in anyhow, this year."

"Our biggest problem is obtaining vaccine. Demand is beyond the supply at present."

Wilbar estimated that about 70 per cent of Pennsylvania residents under 40 have had some anti-polio vaccine, a tremendous increase from past years when just about the reverse was true.

Schrack said that since the immunization campaign began in the latter part of 1955, 15,000,000 doses of vaccine have been used in Pennsylvania, enough to provide three shots for almost half of the state's 11,000,000 citizens of all ages.

Schrack disclosed that to date, 15 polio cases have been reported to the department, with two deaths. Last year, there were 136 cases, with eight deaths.

Schrack said state-supported vaccination now is being concentrated in the critical birth to five years category. The state supplies vaccine for indigent families. Dr. Schrack estimated about 50,000 children are born into these families every year.

Had Army Hitch

After serving an army hitch, young Rockefeller flew to Oslo July 10 to meet Anne Marie. They came on to her home by motorcycle, and the romance rumors have been booming ever since.

Young Rockefeller, a graduate of Princeton university, said he will return to New York in September and enter one of his family's businesses.

"This will change my life completely," Anne Marie said, "everything will become different for me, but what I have brought with me from the home of my childhood will always remain with me. I will remain the one I am."

PRR Derailment Blocks Tracks

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania Railroad repair crews worked today to untangle wreckage left Sunday when 39 cars of a 72-car freight train derailed south of nearby New Cumberland.

No one was injured but the railroad's four tracks were blocked by piles of twisted cars, splintered ties and mangled rails.

A PRR spokesman said a broken rail was the cause. The train was westbound from Philadelphia to Enola.
